JOHN KESSEL IN TOWN DECEMBER 8-9:

The next IMPACT Clinic on Oahu is scheduled for Saturday, December 8, 8am-12noon, at Le Jardin Academy Auditorium with John Kessel as the cadre. John is the USAV Director of Sport Development, Colorado Springs, CO. This may be the last IMPACT Clinic on Oahu this year. Online registration is now OPEN on our website. Cost will be $35 each and participants should be in the Webpoint database. Deadline to register is November 30, 2013. Confirmed IMPACT participants will be posted on the website.

The weekend schedule is as follows:

- Saturday - December 8 = 8am-12pm (IMPACT Clinic-Auditorium)
- Saturday - December 8 = 1pm-4pm (Youth 11U and younger coach/player clinic-gym)
- Sunday - December 9 = 8am-11am (12U/14U coach/player clinic-gym)
- Sunday - December 9 = 1pm-4pm (16U/18U coach/player clinic-gym)

We are also scheduling a series of coach/player clinics with John, all at Le Jardin Academy in Kailua. The clinics will be divided into 3 different age groups and each clinic will include the following topics:

- Myths of Volleyball
- Most Important Drills in Volleyball
- Most Important Skills in Volleyball
- Creating team Systems for All Levels
- Parents as Partners Initiative (PAPI)

The cost for participants will be $10 for current USAV members. Parents are welcome to participate in the clinic during the last half hour of each session (no charge). Ask them to bring their shoes, dress appropriately, and be prepared to get on the court.

We encourage you to mark your calendars and take this opportunity to join us. This will be a weekend of fun, education, networking, and lots of sharing. John has traveled the world and is a great resource for volleyball enthusiasts. His deep understanding of the sport and his mass network of knowledge are enough reasons to attend his clinics. John enjoys sharing stories, videos from his travels, projects in other countries, and can provide many insights to help you develop a sound volleyball program.

So please check the website for more information. LET'S GROW THE GAME TOGETHER!

USAV HIGH PERFORMANCE COACHES CLINIC:
